

Howard and Emily

ACTIVITY SIX: PACKING YOUR SUITCASE MEMORY GAME

What you will need: A group of 2 or more people and good listening skills

Introduction: In Howard's Holiday, Howard and Emily have to pack a suitcase for their trip. They try very hard to remember things they have needed on their past adventures. What would you put in your suitcase? Try playing our memory game to see if you can remember all the things that you want to take with you.

Instructions:

The first person starts the game by saying the line:

"I was going on holiday and in my suitcase, I packed . . ."

Then they say one item that they packed, for example;

"I was going on holiday and in my suitcase, I packed a sun hat"

The next person has to repeat that line and add one more item. Keep going around the group adding more and more items to the list. You can choose anything you like. It doesn't have to be something expected. How about packing a dragon or your pet hamster?

TASK:

Can you remember all the items in the right order?
How long can you keep the game going?

We would love to see the work you do, share at
